

Lab 3: Images! (Teacher Copy)

Lab Instructions

1. You'll be adding images to the web page you made last lab session. Create a copy of your lab2.html. Open Finder (Mac) or File Explorer (Windows) and navigate to your Desktop -> cs@sc folder.
2. Your lab2.html from last session should be here. Create a copy of this file by right-clicking (or Ctrl + click) on the file and click Copy lab2.html.

3. Then right-click (or Ctrl + click) again and click Paste Item and you will see a new file.

4. Rename this newly create file to lab3.html by right-clicking (or Ctrl + click) again and click Rename.

5. One last thing while we are here. Create a new folder named images. You will later save images to this folder. To create a new folder, right-click (or Ctrl + click) one more time and click New Folder.

6. When all is done, your cs@sc folder will look something like this!

7. Now you are ready to add images and CSS! Open Sublime Text. Click File -> Open and open up the newly created lab3.html.

8. Open up lab3.html in your Chrome browser as well, by opening Chrome then click File -> Open to navigate to lab3.html.
9. Find at least three images that relate to your interest. You can use pictures you took from your phone or images you find online.
10. Save images in the images folder you just created. You can use image URLs (absolute path) but use at least one image that is saved in the images folder.
11. Using an image editor (Preview for Mac and Gimp for Windows & Chromebook), resize one of the images.
12. Add three images in lab3.html. Place them where you'd like but don't forget all the required attributes of the image tag.

Parks and Recreation

About the Show

Parks and Recreation is an American political satire sitcom television series created by Greg Daniels and Michael Schur. The series aired on NBC from April 9, 2009 to February 24, 2015, for 125 episodes, over seven seasons.

Plot

Leslie Knope, a midlevel bureaucrat in an Indiana Parks and Recreation Department, hopes to beautify her town (and boost her own career) by helping local nurse Ann Perkins turn an abandoned construction site into a community park, but what should be a fairly simple project is stymied at every turn by oafish bureaucrats, selfish neighbours, governmental red tape and a myriad of other challenges.
